Corn Products International Brings A World of Ingredients to the 2008 IFT Expo

WESTCHESTER, Ill., June 16, 2008 – Corn Products International, Inc. (NYSE: CPO), a leading global provider of agriculturally derived ingredients to diversified industries, will showcase a variety of new ingredients at the 2008 IFT Annual Meeting and Food Expo that will be held in New Orleans, June 28 – July 1.

With a theme of “A World of Ingredients. A World of Ideas,” this year’s IFT Booth (# 2121) focuses on the Company’s presence as one of the world’s leading global ingredient suppliers.

At the show, Corn Products International will showcase some of the ingredients from its expanded portfolio, including:

- Snowflake® Modified Tapioca Starch: A pre gelatinized modified tapioca starch that can extend or replace more costly ingredients by adding body in beverage applications.
- Expandex® modified tapioca starch: Booth visitors can discover how gluten-free food (food without gluten from wheat, oats, rye or barley) can taste more like its wheat-based counterparts with a sample of a delicious Gluten-Free toffee chip cookie.
- ERYSTA™ Performance Systems: Proprietary erythritol-based sweetening system for reduced calorie, reduced-sugar and sugar-free product applications.
